Official Publication of Kalamunda Aeronautical Model Society (Inc). ISSUE: AUGUST 2011

It was just on 7-00am and 26 tons of blue-metal was being tipped to a huge pile near the car park. The long awaited project to fill the drainage ditches at either end of the field would effectively extend the area to better accommodate larger and faster aircraft that many members now have. Field Manager Maverick Heinz and loader operator Roy Scott were ready for action and by 7-15am Roy had the loader fired up and was clearing the southern drain ready to receive the layers of blue metal, agricultural drainage pipe, shade cloth and finally the top sand. During the morning, about 10 other keen souls rolled up armed with rakes and shovels and commenced levelling the rock and laying the pipe. Mid-day saw the BBQ in action with snaggers, bread rolls and drinks for the workers. An uncharacteristic announcement by the Treasurer that lunch and drinks were “on the house” convinced foreman Eric Gooch to quickly snivel the last sausage.

After a short lunch break, Field Manager Heinz rallied the workers back to the ditches muttering he wasn't paying them to loll about. A late afternoon arrival to the working party was Mark Jensen who sauntered up to the work site with a note from his Dad claiming “Mark had been at a meeting” that morning and should be excused. The uproar from the workers immediately turned to “ah mate!” when Mark produced a carton of cold beer. Hero of the day was Roy Scott who relentlessly drove the loader from early morning to late afternoon moving the huge piles of blue-metal and sand to the work sites and later smoothing the new surfaces with the loader bucket.

While some finishing work still has to be done, the Committee, Field Manager and the workers hope members are pleased with the results of their efforts.

Base metal goes in

'I'm telling you Eric, I'm the Field Manager, you're the Foreman!'

Roy dumps the 'fill' on top of the shade cloth covered metal

HAVE YOU BEEN BITTEN BY THE SCALE BUG?

*If you love aeromodelling, you must have dreamt of flying a scale aircraft at some time.
Or do you fly scale already and want to become more involved in this area of our hobby?*

The Scale Society needs AWA members from all clubs to carry on the tradition of scale modelling and flying. And you don't have to be a scratch building genius to be part of it.

If your passion is golden era, warbirds or civilian aircraft we would love you to become part of the scale society. There's no fee to join or tasks to fill, simply become involved during the many scale rally's held at clubs throughout the year.

There are only a few competitions and ARF's can be flown at most of them. Flying scale aircraft is not difficult and very rewarding and you'll find the scale fraternity are a great bunch of people who love welcoming new flyers.
